DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

The first floor of this 2 bay 3 story building is a shop. Built of running bond brick (painted) and located to the right of a narrow alley, this structure has a flat roof.

The shopfront is protected by a deep overhang which is supported by 3 large scrolled brackets, and is ornamented with a row of small brackets. There is a stormdoor topped by a transom to the vestibule on the left. The slightly protruding in shop window on a wood base has a central wide panel flanked by 2 obtusely angled very narrow panes. Though the window transoms have been painted over; two arched panels are visible over the central portion of the window.

The one-over-one double hung windows of the upper floors have wood lintels and painted brick sills. There is a wood cornice with scrolled brackets.
